Part B - Conversion Information for Employees, and Family Members Who are Losing FEGLI Coverage

If you are eligible and you will be carrying all of your Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance (FEGLI) coverage into retirement, do not apply for conversion. Employees (and assignees, if applicable) and their family members who are losing FEGLI coverage, however, may be eligible and wish to convert some or all of their coverage to an individual direct-pay policy.

Employees-If you have not assigned your FEGLI coverage, you are entitled to convert to an individual direct-pay policy unless, within 3 calendar days after the date your insurance terminates, you return to a Government position that qualifies you to reacquire FEGLI coverage. You may purchase an individual policy in an amount equal to or less than your Basic life insurance plus any optional coverage you may have.

Assignees-You are entitled to convert your share of the insured's FEGLI coverage to an individual direct-pay policy unless, within 3 calendar days after the date the insured's insurance terminated, he/she returns to a Government position that qualifies him/her to reacquire FEGLI coverage. If that is the case, his/her previous assignment is still valid. You may purchase an individual policy in an amount equal to or less than the amount of insurance which the insured assigned to you.

Family members-If, upon termination of the employee's FEGLI coverage, he/she does not convert Option C-Family coverage (if any), you, as an eligible family member, may do so. Spouses may convert up to $5,000, and eligible children up to $2,500 each. Eligible family members are the employee's spouse and unmarried dependent children under age 22 (including adopted children, stepchildren who lived with the employee in a regular parent-child relationship, and recognized natural children) and unmarried dependent children over age 22 who are incapable of self-support because of a mental or physical disability that existed before they reached age 22.

Your time to convert is limited-You must mail your request for information regarding conversion within 31 days of the date in item 3 of Part A above, or within 31 days of the date you receive this notice, whichever gives you more time. If you fail to request conversion information within the 31-day time limit due to a cause beyond your control, you may be allowed to convert your life insurance within six months after the date in item 3, provided you attach a full explanation of what prevented you from making a timely request. If approved, the effective date of the conversion policy will be retroactive to the day following the day group coverage ended.

Note: Under certain circumstances, life insurance is payable if death occurs within 31 days after the group life insurance terminates, regardless of whether conversion has been requested. However, extension of the conversion privilege beyond 31 days does not extend coverage under any circumstances. If death occurs within the 31-day period, further information concerning possible benefits may be obtained from the agency named in item 6 above.

General information about conversion

- If you have assigned your FEGLI coverage, you can only convert your Option C coverage (if any). Your assignee(s) retain(s) the right to convert your other coverage(s).
- No medical examination is required.
- You or the assignee(s), if applicable, must pay the premium applicable to the individual policy.
- The government will not pay any part of the individual policy premium.
- The individual policy will be issued by an insurance company you select from the list of eligible companies you will receive if you apply for conversion.
- The individual policy may be an ordinary life policy or a variation of ordinary life (see Part D). It must be a type of insurance customarily issued by the insurance company you select. However, it cannot be term insurance or universal life insurance or any other form of life insurance that has an indeterminate premium. It cannot have disability or accidental death and dismemberment benefits.

Part D - Information About Individual Policies

Types of Policies

There are two basic types of life insurance available.

- An Ordinary Life policy, also known as a Whole Life policy or a Straight Life policy, provides lifetime protection in return for premium payments throughout the insured's entire life (or to age 100). The policy builds a CASH VALUE after one, two, or three years. The cash may be withdrawn if premium payments are stopped. You may borrow against the cash value of the policy at any time for any purpose.
- A variation of Ordinary Life provides for a shorter premium payment period, usually to age 95, at which time the policy becomes paid-up for the remainder of the insured's life. The variation provides the same lifetime protection and benefits as an Ordinary Life policy, provided that the premiums are paid for the prescribed premium payment period. However, since premiums are payable for a shorter period of time, they normally would be higher. And, because the premiums are normally higher, the policy's CASH VALUE usually increases more quickly.

Assignment

IF you have assigned (given up ownership of) your insurance, only the assignee(s) has (have) the right to convert your non-option C coverage. If an assignee converts his/her share of your insurance, he/she (1) is responsible for paying the premiums, (2) will receive the dividends, if any, (3) may withdraw the cash if he/she stops paying premiums, and (4) may borrow against the cash value.

Cost of Individual Policy

Life insurance policies (whether Ordinary Life or a variation) are issued on a participating or non-participating basis.

Premiums for participating policies are higher than those charged for non-participating policies. Part of the premium is refunded in the form of an annual dividend to the policyholder - the part found not needed to furnish protection. The first dividend is usually available after premiums have been paid for one, two, or three years. To obtain the net cost of a participating policy, deduct these yearly dividends from the premium.

For non-participating policies, premiums are set as close as possible to the actual cost of insurance protection. The premium is the guaranteed cost to the policyholder. No dividends are paid under these policies.

The following are approximate premium rates on a participating basis for Ordinary Life policies with premiums payable for life (or to age 100) and for Ordinary Life policies with premiums payable to age 95. Premium rates for non-participating policies are somewhat lower and no dividends will be paid under these policies. The rates shown below are examples only and are not rates for any one company.

Sample Annual Premium Rates per $1,000 of Insurance
Participating Insurance (any dividends paid will reduce these costs)

Age of insured at issuance of policy	Ordinary Life	Life Paid-Up at Age 95	Age of insured at issuance of policy	Ordinary Life	Life Paid-Up at Age 95
20	$ 9.00	$10.50	45	$24.50	$28.00
25	$10.50	$12.50	50	$31.50	$36.50

The data you furnish will be used by the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance to determine eligibility for conversion of life insurance coverage.
